

Every space and every significant piece: length × width × height, in feet and inches

Round 1 layout · concept drawing, not for construction

Furniture and joinery: length $\times$ width $\times$ height of the piece. A curved or L-shaped run is measured along its length, at its working depth. A loft is sized by its box and hangs above what is drawn under it.

Furniture and joinery: length $\times$ width $\times$ height of the piece. A curved or L-shaped run is measured along its length, at its working depth. A loft is sized by its box and hangs above what is drawn under it.